Lowe Syndrome Trust Patron, Tony Hadley, invites you to attend Chicago on the 29th March at the Cambridge Theatre London. The show will be followed by a champagne reception with Tony. There are limited tickets for this event, which will raise funds to support medical research into Lowe Syndrome, an incurable children's disease.

The Lowe Syndrome Trust is a small UK charity. Visit www.lowetrust.com or call 0208 458 6791 or text mobile 07958 444020

£50 per Ticket - 8.00pm Show - 10:30pm Champagne reception with Tony

Now in its 10th sensational year, CHICAGO the Musical is the longest running revival in West End theatre history.

TONY HADLEY joins the cast as smooth-talking lawyer Billy Flynn. Tony joins AOIFE MULHOLLAND (BBC 1's "How Do You Solve A Problem Like Maria") and West End favourite ANNETTE MCLAUGHLIN, as cell block rivals Roxie Hart and Velma Kelly. X-Factor favourite BRENDA EDWARDS continues her triumphant run as Matron 'Mama' Morton.
